Subject: {FP} Lyons joins Berry, Chadwick, Murdock, et al.

> I was shocked and saddened to learn today that Beth Lyons has joined > with Mary Berry, John Murdock, Lynn Chadwick, Micheal Palmer, David > Acosta,
> Ken Ford, et al., in the pending listeners' and directors' lawsuits > against > Pacifica.
> John Murdock's law firm, Epstein Becker & Green (the union busting > firm), and Wendel, Rosen, Dean & Black, have filed briefs in federal > court > on her (and their) behalf. I didn't see the actual legal documents until > today, and had assumed she had joined fellow New Yorker, Leslie Cagan, in > obtaining separate counsel.
> Rob Robinson, Aaron Kriegel, Tomas Moran, Pete Bramson & Leslie Cagan > have all retained separate counsel and have NOT joined the board > majority's > position on our suit.
> When the time came, finally, when all the directors had to fish or cut > bait -- Lyons didn't have the courage or the conviction to fight the board > cabal that has usurped control of Pacifica, and you know the story > going back to the "purges" of 1995 at least occupied KPFA with armed > guards, fired Sawaya, Bensky, Osman, had Dennis Bernstein & other staff > and > community members arrested, "reassigned" Dan Coughlin, dumped Verna Avery > Brown, the list goes on and on, ... and now they don't need Amy Goodman > any > more either. The gloves are off and Lyons is on the wrong side of the > fight.
